DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sasaki et al. '100.

Sasaki et al. Show in Figure. 1A a device for precision passive alignment 110 for a low cost array fiber access component, characterized in that a laser carrier 112 is provided with alignment trenches, that a polymeric carrier 111 is provided with vertical alignment structure and horizontal alignment structures, wherein the alignment trenches are provided to mate with the vertical alignment structures and the waveguides 113 are provided to be aligned to the horizontal alignment when the laser carrier 112 is placed on the polymeric carrier 111.

Citation of the Pertinent References

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US patents 6,236,788, 6,219,470, 5,444,269, 5,574,811, and 5,559,918 disclose alignment structure for laser devices.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-3 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Communication Information

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to Dung (Michael) T. Nguyen at telephone number (703)-305-7159.
